

Apostrophes

for making possessives of nouns

The girl's cap.
(The cap of the girl.)

Three days' journey.
(The journey of three days.)

Apostrophes

for making possessives of nouns

Singular nouns:

Add 's to the word even if it ends in -s.

The person's coat.

James's bike.

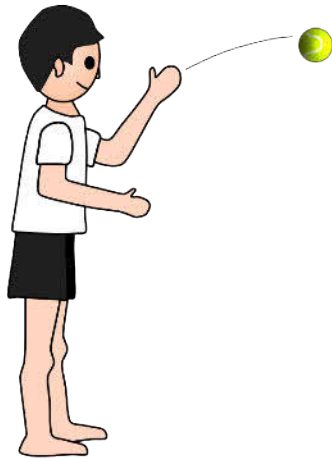

Apostrophes

for making possessives of nouns

Plural nouns NOT ending in -s:

Add 's to the word.

The children's favourite game.

The deer's antlers.

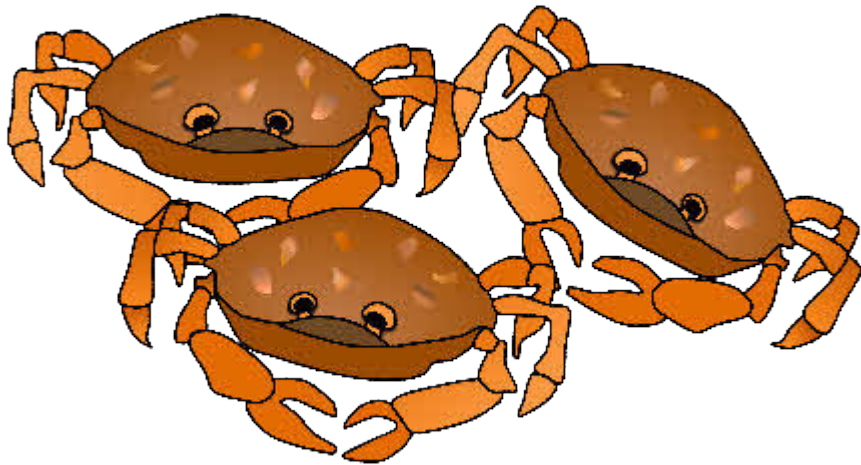

Apostrophes

for making possessives of nouns

Plural nouns that end in -s:

Just add ' to the word.

The crabs' claws.

©

The towers' windows.

Apostrophes

for missing out letters in words

don't (do not)

I'm (I am)

could've (could have) who's (who is) he'll (he will) they're (they are)

Apostrophes

for making plurals of lowercase letters

Mind your p's and q's.

Mississippi has 2 p's and 4 s's.

This rule only applies to lowercase letters,
NOT capitals, numbers or other symbols.